Resolution adopted by the General Assembly on 6 July 2026

without reference to a Main Committee ([A/80/L.86)]

80/287. Status of the Human Rights Council

The General Assembly,

Reaffirming its resolution 60/251 of 15 March 2006 on the Human Rights Council,

Reaffirming also its resolution 65/281 of 17 June 2011 on the review of the Human Rights Council,

Acknowledging that peace and security, development and human rights are the pillars of the United Nations system and the foundations for collective security and well-being, and recognizing that development, peace and security and human rights are interlinked and mutually reinforcing,

Recalling the importance of adequate and sustainable financing of the Human Rights Council and its mechanisms,

Welcoming ongoing coordination between the General Assembly and the Human Rights Council, within their respective mandates, including in regard to the present resolution,

1. Decides to maintain the status of the Human Rights Council as a subsidiary body of the General Assembly;
2. Also decides to review the status of the Human Rights Council again, at a time no sooner than at its ninetieth session and no later than at its ninety-fifth session.

*98th plenary meeting
6 July 2026*
