61/... Mandate of Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders

The Human Rights Council,

Guided by the purposes and principles of the Charter of the United Nations, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the International Covenants on Human Rights and other relevant instruments,

Recalling General Assembly resolution 53/144 of 9 December 1998, by which the Assembly adopted by consensus the Declaration on the Right and Responsibility of Individuals, Groups and Organs of Society to Promote and Protect Universally Recognized Human Rights and Fundamental Freedoms annexed to that resolution, commonly referred to as the Declaration on Human Rights Defenders, and reiterating the importance of the Declaration and its promotion and full and effective implementation,

Recalling also the continued validity and application of all the provisions of the above-mentioned Declaration,

Noting civil society initiatives to mark the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Declaration on Human Rights Defenders, in particular the Declaration on Human Rights Defenders +25 (Declaration +25),

Recalling all previous resolutions on this subject, including Human Rights Council resolutions 16/5 of 24 March 2011, 25/18 of 28 March 2014, 31/32 of 24 March 2016, 34/5 of 23 March 2017, 40/11 of 21 March 2019, 43/16 of 22 June 2020, 49/18 of 1 April 2022, 52/4 of 3 April 2023 and 58/23 of 4 April 2025, and General Assembly resolutions 68/181 of 18 December 2013, 70/161 of 17 December 2015, 72/247 of 24 December 2017, 74/146 of 18 December 2019, 76/174 of 16 December 2021 and 78/216 of 19 December 2023,

* State not a member of the Human Rights Council.

Recalling also Human Rights Council resolutions 5/1, on institution-building of the Council, and 5/2, on the Code of Conduct for Special Procedure Mandate Holders of the Council, of 18 June 2007, and stressing that the mandate holder shall discharge his or her duties in accordance with those resolutions and the annexes thereto,

Noting with concern that special procedure mandate holders are increasingly targeted in connection with the discharge of their functions, including through repressive activities against them,

Reiterating the grave concerns expressed by the General Assembly and the Human Rights Council with regard to the serious risks faced by human rights defenders due to threats, attacks, reprisals and acts of intimidation against them in many countries, including in situations of armed conflict and occupation,

Reaffirming that States are under the obligation to protect all human rights and fundamental freedoms of all persons, and emphasizing that the same rights that apply offline also apply online,

Stressing that respect and support for the activities of all human rights defenders, including women human rights defenders, are essential to the overall enjoyment of human rights,

Mindful that domestic law and administrative provisions and their application should facilitate the work of human rights defenders, including by avoiding any criminalization, stigmatization, impediments, obstructions or restrictions thereof contrary to international human rights law,

Emphasizing the important role that individuals and civil society institutions, including non-governmental organizations, groups and national human rights institutions, play at the local, national, regional and international levels in the promotion and protection of all human rights and fundamental freedoms for all, and noting with deep concern that funding cuts have delivered a series of shocks to the human rights defender ecosystem and its ability to provide protection,

Underscoring that the legal framework within which human rights defenders work peacefully to promote and protect human rights and fundamental freedoms is that of national legislation consistent with the Charter and international human rights law,

Gravely concerned that, in some instances, national security and counter-terrorism legislation and other measures, such as laws regulating civil society organizations, have been misused to target human rights defenders or have hindered their work and endangered their safety in a manner contrary to international law,

Recognizing the urgent need to address, and to take concrete steps to prevent and stop, the use of legislation to hinder or limit unduly the ability of human rights defenders to exercise their work, including by reviewing and, where necessary, amending relevant legislation and its implementation in order to ensure compliance with international human rights law,

1. Welcomes the work and takes note with appreciation of the reports of the Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders,¹ and strongly urges all States to take concrete steps to create, in law and in practice, a safe and enabling environment, online and offline, in which human rights defenders can operate free from hindrance and insecurity;

2. Decides to extend the mandate of Special Rapporteur on the situation of human rights defenders for a period of three years on the same terms as provided for by the Human Rights Council in its resolution 16/5;

3. Urges all States to cooperate with and assist the Special Rapporteur in the performance of his or her tasks, to provide all information and to respond to the communications transmitted to them by the Special Rapporteur without undue delay;

¹ A/HRC/61/40, A/HRC/58/53, A/HRC/55/50, A/80/114, A/79/123, A/78/131.

4. Calls upon States to give serious consideration to responding favourably to the requests of the Special Rapporteur to visit their countries, and urges them to enter into a constructive dialogue with the Special Rapporteur with respect to the follow-up to and implementation of his or her recommendations so as to enable him or her to fulfil the mandate even more effectively;

5. Requests the Secretary-General and the United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights to provide the Special Rapporteur with all the assistance necessary for the effective fulfilment of his or her mandate;

6. Encourages all concerned United Nations agencies and organizations, within their mandates, to provide all possible assistance and support to the Special Rapporteur for the effective fulfilment of his or her mandate, including in the context of country visits and through suggestions on ways and means of ensuring the protection of human rights defenders;

7. Requests the Special Rapporteur to continue to report on an annual basis to the Human Rights Council and to the General Assembly at its eighty-first and eighty-third session, and strongly encourages that any financial efficiency savings made in relation to this change in reporting frequency be used to support the wider activities of the mandate;

8. Decides to continue consideration of this issue in accordance with its annual programme of work.
